11. NOTICE OF YOUR SUPPLEMENTAL PROPERTY TAX BILL:

California property tax law requires the Assessor to revalue real property at the time the ownership of the property changes. Because of this law, you may receive one or two supplemental tax bills, depending on when your loan closes. The supplemental tax bills are not mailed to your lender. If you have arranged for your property tax payments to be paid through an impound account, the supplemental tax bills will not be paid by your lender. It is your responsibility to pay these supplemental bills directly to the Tax Collector. If you have any questions concerning this matter, please call your local Tax Collector's Office.

12. NOTICE REGARDING GAS AND HAZARDOUS LIQUID PIPELINES:

This notice is being provided simply to inform you that information about the general location of gas and hazardous liquid transmission pipelines is available to the public via the National Pipeline Mapping System (NPMS) Internet Web site maintained by the United States Department of Transportation at http://www.npms.phmsa.dot.gov/. To seek further information about possible transmission pipelines near the property, you may contact your local gas utility or other pipeline operators in the area. Contact information for pipeline operators is searchable by ZIP Code and county on the NPMS Internet Web site.

- 13. LOAN DISCOUNT CONDITION (SHORTSALE CONTINGENCY):
  - 13.1 Close of escrow under this agreement is conditioned on Seller obtaining payoff demands at a discount from the lienholders of record in full satisfaction of all amounts owed them.
    - a. The discounts are to be amounts which collectively allow Seller to fully perform on this agreement and escrow instructions without the need for escrow to call for funds from Seller to close escrow.
    - b. Seller on opening escrow to promptly request payoff demands from the lienholders, directly or through escrow, and diligently assist each lienholder in their analysis of their discount and processing of their payoff demand by providing them with information and documentation on themselves and this transaction.
  - 13.2 After _______, 20______, this agreement may be terminated by either Buyer or Seller should Seller be unable to obtain written payoff demands, or consent from the lienholders, to accept Seller's proceeds from this transaction which remain after disbursement of all costs incurred by Seller in the full performance of this agreement and escrow instructions. [See RPI Form 183]
  - 13.3 Seller may accept backup offers contingent on the cancellation of this agreement.
    - a. If backup offers are received, they will be submitted to the lienholders for payoff demands which may be accepted by the lienholders in lieu of a payoff demand on escrow complying with this agreement.
    - b. Should lienholders submit a written payoff demand in a backup offer acceptable to Seller, Sellermay terminate this agreement. [See RPI Form 183]
  - 13.4 The Seller understands a discount by a lienholder in full satisfaction of the debt owed will likely have consequences on the Seller's creditworthiness and income tax reporting, and other unforseen difficulties, including,
    - a. The delinquencies on payments due the lienholders and the discount allowing for payment of a lesser amount then owed may be reported by the lienholder to credit reporting agencies and adversely affectthe Seller in the future.
    - b. The amount of the interest on the discount on the principal will be reported by the lienholder to the IRSas a 1099 Form receipt of income, and depending on the recourse or nonrecourse nature of the debt discounted, or whether secured by the Seller's principal residence, will be reported by the Seller as discharge of indebtedness income, part of the price realized on the sale or a reduction in cost basis.
    - c.

      Seller may terminate this agreement within five days of acceptance, based on Seller's reasonable disapproval or the disapproval of tax or legal advisors to the Seller, of the consequences of this discounton Seller's credit or tax reporting, or on liability issues arising due to the discount. [See RPI Form 183]
