

The Federal Reserve recently announced it will keep interest rates near zero through 2023 to encourage lending and stimulate investment.

This means mortgage rates are now at historic lows. It's the perfect opportunity to refinance and save thousands over the life of your mortgage.

Refinancing can make your mortgage payments more predictable and manageable, but that's not all. Whether you want to eliminate your mortgage insurance or shorten your mortgage term, I can help you decide which refinancing terms best suit your personal goals.
